

Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Finals of the County & City Enterprise Boards' National Enterprise Awards 2009.

Tuesday 15th September 2009 at 6.30pm,
Assembly Room, County Hall, Marine Road, Dun Laoghaire, Co. Dublin.

7 Short-Listed Finalists: Profiles

Lesley O'Mahony, Babypotz www.babypotz.com

Babypotz sells innovative storage solutions for homemade baby food. Babypotz containers are made from high quality re-usable plastic and are freezer, microwave, dishwasher and sterilizer safe. The business began in 2003 and operates from Cabinteely.

Simon Cullen, Vidatum Technologies www.vidatum.com

Vidatum Technologies supplies software products and services to the third level education sector and counts UCD and UCC amongst its clients. The company has offices in both Dublin and Amman, Jordan and currently employs 6 people.

Alison Nash, Ali Nash Jewellery www.alinash.com

Ali Nash Jewellery is a handcrafted jewellery label created by its owner in 2004. Alison designs her distinctive collections of necklaces, bracelets and earrings in her Dún Laoghaire studio and sells through selected galleries and boutiques.

Darren Grant, The Organic Supermarket www.organicssupermarket.ie

The Organic Supermarket is Ireland's first 100% dedicated retailer of organic food and wine. Opened in Blackrock's main street in July 2008, the store carries over 3,000 lines of product and offers next day deliveries through its website. It currently employs 6 people.

Audrey McKenna, Kingston Academy of Music www.kingstonacademyofmusic.ie

The Kingston Academy of Music in Dún Laoghaire was established in autumn 2008 and offers music tuition to students of all abilities. The centre aims to become a centre of excellence and will cater for the needs of hobbyists as well as those pursuing exams.

Peter O'Neill, Invotech www.invotech.ie

Invotech develops software management solutions for the leisure and spa sector in Ireland and the UK. Set up in 1999, the Sandyford-based business employs 6 people and has a client base of over 200 companies.

Suzanne Quinn, Holiday Homes Direct www.holidayhomesdirect.ie

HolidayHomesDirect.ie promotes a large selection of holiday homes, apartments and holiday villas to rent directly from the owner. Established in early 2007 and now employing 3 people, the company operates from Dún Laoghaire.

With a total prize fund of €10,000, category prizes will be awarded and one overall winner will be chosen to represent the county in the National Finals in Dublin Castle this November.