

Enterprising Women Network Meeting January 10th, 2012

A B2B network for female business owners

voltedge
because people matter

Date: Tuesday January 10th 7pm to 9pm
Venue: Fitzpatrick's Castle Hotel, Killiney
Topic: Resourcing in 2012
Guest Speakers: Fredericka Sheppard & Joyce Rigby-Jones, Voltedge
www.voltedge.ie

Are you thinking of hiring/taking on an intern or looking at employee issues in 2012? Voltedge will guide you through the maze of schemes and options including internships and temporary contract issues. We will look at the risks/challenges and benefits of the options and what can happen if you take on someone who doesn't have the right fit for the job – how do we get it right? Join us for an interactive and informative session.

Voltedge is a leading Human Resources consultancy partnership based in Dublin. We are passionate about finding our clients a HR solution that will add real value to their business and be fit for purpose. By leveraging our extensive knowledge and industry expertise, we develop HR solutions that make a tangible difference. Voltedge can truly make a difference.

We have particular experience of working with start up's and SME's and so we recognise the challenges in addition to sourcing funding, proof of concept, route to market etc. The need to hire a team who are flexible and talented to enable the start up or SME deliver on its business plan is critical, and this is where we our expertise can make the difference.

Agenda:
7:00pm Open Networking
7:30pm Introductions
7:45pm Resourcing in 2012
9:00pm Finish

Email: angela@dlrceb.ie or reply on our Facebook event to book your place. Guests welcome